

The T20 league got the 2nd round underway on a very wet 1 May last weekend. After numerous attempts to dry the pitch, FCC finally won the toss and decided to bowl.

ACC, put it to bat, didn't have the quickest start with the first 3 batsmen all averaging under a run a ball. K. Razaq (37) played a largely supportive role once the 3rd wicket fell and N. Butt came to the crease. N. Butt scored his unbeaten 57 runs off only 26 deliveries, which put ACC in a good position as the innings started drawing to a close. A quick-fire 15 off only 6 deliveries from S. Ahmed also helped steer ACC to 172/8 off their 20 overs.

FCC now requiring just over 8.6 runs/over to win the match, found it difficult to score runs. With an even spread of the runs throughout most of their line-up, proving that they can all bat, nobody managed to score at a sufficient rate to cause ACC much trouble. B. Butt (19), A. Adnan (17), K. Izaz (16), and H. Qaiser (14) all contributing evenly, as FCC managed 126/8 off their 20 overs, thus allowing ACC to win by 46 runs.
